Travel Reimbursement Policy

Version: 1.0

Effective Date: 1 January 2026

Applicable To: All Full-Time Employees

1. Purpose

The purpose of this Travel Reimbursement Policy is to establish clear guidelines for business travel and reimbursement of expenses incurred while conducting official company work. Employees are expected to spend company funds responsibly while ensuring business travel remains comfortable, efficient, and cost-effective.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees travelling for approved business purposes including:

- Client meetings
- Conferences and training programs
- Business development activities
- Recruitment drives
- Internal company events

Personal travel expenses are not eligible for reimbursement.

3. Flight Reimbursement

Domestic Travel

- Economy Class airfare is reimbursable for all employees.
- Flight bookings should preferably be made through the company's designated travel partner or approved booking platform.
- Employees are encouraged to book tickets at least 14 days in advance to minimize costs.

International Travel

- Economy Class is the standard travel class.
- Premium Economy or Business Class may be approved only by the CEO or Department Head for long-haul international travel exceeding 8 hours.

Non-Reimbursable Items

- Seat upgrades
- Lounge access
- Travel insurance purchased personally
- In-flight shopping or entertainment

Employees must submit the flight ticket, boarding pass, and payment receipt while claiming reimbursement.

4. Hotel Reimbursement

Employees travelling overnight may claim hotel accommodation expenses.

Eligible Accommodation

- Standard business hotels (3–4 star category)
- Single occupancy rooms
- Complimentary breakfast is preferred where available

Limits

- Metro cities: Up to ₹6,000 per night
- Non-metro cities: Up to ₹4,000 per night

Higher-value bookings require prior approval from the Department Head.

Additional expenses such as minibar usage, spa services, movie rentals, and personal room service are not reimbursable.

5. Cab Expenses

The company reimburses reasonable local transportation expenses incurred during official travel.

Eligible expenses include:

- Airport transfers
- Travel between hotel and client office

- Travel to business meetings
- Late-night office commute with manager approval

Employees are encouraged to use economical ride-hailing services whenever practical.

Luxury vehicle bookings without prior approval will not be reimbursed.

Receipts or digital invoices must accompany reimbursement claims.

6. Approval Process

Before Travel

Employees must obtain approval from:

- Reporting Manager
- Department Head (for international travel or exceptional expenses)

Travel requests should include:

- Business purpose
- Destination
- Estimated travel cost
- Travel dates

After Travel

Employees should submit reimbursement claims within 10 working days of completing travel.

Required documents include:

- Flight tickets
- Boarding passes
- Hotel invoices
- Cab receipts
- Expense claim form

Finance will review claims and process approved reimbursements within 7–10 working days.

7. Policy Compliance

- False or inflated claims may result in disciplinary action.

- Employees should retain original receipts for audit purposes.
- The company reserves the right to reject expenses that do not comply with this policy.
